A large crowd was in attendance, and the only thing to mar the satisfaction of victory was the serious injury of one of the Kemper boys at the very end of the game. The boys who stayed overnight reported Tuesday morning that he is better and it is hoped that he may soon recover.

JAS. H. FARRELL, A PROMINENT CHICAGO MAN.

And the Oldest Member of the Illinois House of Representatives Makes a Recommendation.

James H. Farrell, of Chicago, is one of the best known figures in the democratic politics of that city. For years he has been marshal of the famous Cook County Democracy Marching club, which has participated in democratic campaigns in half the states of the union, and which went to New York especially to assist in the election of Mayor Van Wyck.

Capt. Farrell is the oldest member of the Illinois house of representatives in point of service, having been a member continuously since 1887. His constituents have elected him eight times. He has been a leader in that body from the beginning of his career and is one of the best known figures in Illinois politics.

Capt. Farrell is 59 years of age and one of the best preserved men for his years in the Illinois legislature, despite his arduous and constant duties in that body. Mr. Farrell is engaged in the real estate business in Chicago. Under date of March 24, 1901, he writes as follows:

Springfield, Ill.,
Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill.
Manufacturers Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Gentlemen: I have found after a thorough trial that your Syrup Pepsin is a most excellent and successful remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness and sick headache. It is most effective and pleasing in all cases of this nature, and it is with pleasure I recommend it to others.

Respectfully,
JAS. H. FARRELL.

From Brown county, Kan., comes the story of a farmer's daughter who, seven years ago, befriended a man who was traveling overland in a prairie schooner. #### To Abandon Co-Education.

Segregation of the sexes has begun in the Missouri university. The first building in what is expected to be some time a woman's quadrangle is going up. It is to cost $40,000. Moreover, a part of the academic hall has been set apart as sacred to women. Men must not pass its portals save by invitation. The women's parlor, waiting rooms, gymnasium and the Y. W. C. A. rooms are barred to men.

"One of the hardest things to battle against," said President Jesse to a party of St. Louisians, including Mayor Wells, "is popular prejudice. There is a popular prejudice, however unfounded it may be, against the co-education of the sexes, and the time may come when it will be best for the greatest possible success of the university to bow to it rather than to battle against it, as we have been doing."

"We have 288 young women at the regular session, and 257 at the summer school. We have nine women at the summer school at the Rolla School of Mines. The total attendance of young women is 595, as against a total of 1,314."

Best Liniment on Earth.

L. M. McHany, Greenville, Tex., writes, Nov. 24, 1900: "I had rheumatism last winter, was down in bed six weeks; tried everything, but got no relief till a friend gave me a part of a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I used it, and two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since. I can recommend Snow Liniment to be the best liniment on earth for rheumatism." For rheumatic, sciatic or neuralgic pains, rub in Ballard's Snow Liniment, you will not suffer long, but will be gratified with a speedy and effective cure. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Crenshaw & Young's.

The Beef Trust.

Says Senator Vest: "I spent the whole summer of 1891 investigating the meat trust of Chicago and made a report of more than 600 pages, giving unquestionable proof that the trust existed and that it controlled the price paid for beef cattle and the price paid by the consumer for meat. The committee of which I was chairman reported five bills; but one of them passed the senate. It was never even considered in the house. The other four bills died in the senate, as the trust was strong enough to prevent their consideration." Do the American people expect congress to stand between them and monopoly?

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's family pills are the best. 11-8ml

Died, at Allouez, I. T. October 26, 1902, Mr. Lockhart is a former resident of Lafayette county having located here in 1850 and made this county his home for about 47 years. Of late years he has made his home in the Indian Territory. He was a brother of the late John O. Lockhart, of the Dover neighborhood. He was born in Virginia and was one of Lafayette county's earliest pioneer citizens. — Higginsville Advance.

Lansing, Kansas, has no monopoly of fossils, it seems. Some antediluvian oysters have been found at Sallton, Neb., and up in the bad lands of Montana were recently unearthed the hind legs and feet of a dinosaur. But the bad lands are especially prolific in this class of treasure. Scientists say they promise more in the way of clearing up mooted points of geology than the whole of Europe.

Good Books and Bad

By
HERBERT S. STONE,
Chicago Publisher.

THIS matter is so relative, so individual, that intelligent discussion is possible only by selecting some definite viewpoint. Consequently, let us look at it from the very practical and responsible one of the publisher.

How is the publisher to draw the line between the moral and the immoral book? He cannot, so far as measuring it by any defined or established standard. Especially is this true of the novel. With books of other kinds the task of moral classification seems somewhat easier.

Very soon, however, the publisher unconsciously falls into the habit of making a classification of his own. He divides the novels which raise the moral problem into two classes:

First, Those which are so strong in a literary sense that he feels compelled to print them IN SPITE OF THEIR FRANKNESS.

Second: Those which contain situations so racy and suggestive that he speculates upon the possibility that these will give the book a commercial success in spite of the general lack of real literary strength.

In one case the "badness" is merely INCIDENTAL TO THE POWERFUL HANDLING OF A BIG THEME. In the other, the suggestiveness is the MAIN CONSIDERATION; IT IS "BADNESS" FOR ITS OWN SAKE.

There can be no escape from the conclusion that no publisher is justified in putting out a book which must depend for its success upon its suggestiveness. On the other hand, some of the greatest books in the world, those which have done most for human liberty, contain an amount of plain speech which surpasses that of the books which are to be classed as vicious and harmful. Hugo, Zola, Tolstoi and Ibsen furnish notable examples of TRANSPARENT FRANKNESS, yet the foremost preachers and teachers of the day consider the books of these masters PART OF A LIBERAL EDUCATION.

Therefore, let us put the problem in this way: A book in which the suggestiveness is the overshadowing element is bad and unworthy; but no responsible adult need hesitate to read a book which, in the working out of a worthy theme, handles the delicate relationships of society with great frankness.
